

Certificate Program in Christian Formation and Spiritual Direction 2015-2016

Offered in Salt Lake City Utah at the Episcopal Church Center of Utah beginning in January 2015
By Christian Formation & Direction Ministries in conjunction with its Utah Regional Network

Christian Formation & Direction Ministries [CFDM] is a non-profit Christian ministry incorporated in California in 1996. It's mission is to "lead others into a deeper love for and intimacy with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit through spiritual formation and the art of spiritual direction...particularly through the training, re-sourcing, networking, and supervising of spiritual directors for Christian churches in the western United States." For more information visit its website at www.cfdm.org.

The goal of the Certificate Program in Christian Formation and Spiritual Direction is to help the student

- To mature into deeper intimacy and friendship with the Triune God
- To develop a theology of Christian spirituality by drawing on and integrating insights from Scripture, theology, historical traditions, psychology and related fields
- To discover the richness of one's own spiritual tradition and the gifts and blessings of other traditions
- To learn about, and engage in, spiritual habits and practices that facilitate spiritual growth
- To grow in balancing prayer, study and service and in developing practical wisdom based on Scripture, tradition, reason, and experience
- To gain experience and skills in providing individual and group spiritual direction in a Christ-centered program and context
- To participate in a creative partnership among Christian spiritual directors in Utah and/or neighbor States

Costs:

Pricing for this two-year program at the Episcopal Church Center of Utah is $3,975. In the first year, the $2,250 tuition covers 12 days of instruction and practicum at the ECCU, refreshment/snacks and some meals [one dinner and two lunches], resources of two Faculty and 1-2 Interns, administrative costs, reprints and other materials. In the second year the $1,725 tuition covers 6 days of instruction and practicum at the ECCU, refreshment/snacks and some meals [one dinner and two lunches], Faculty and Intern resources, administrative costs, reprints and other materials, and supervision in monthly group meetings for ongoing evaluation and training. Not included are costs for transportation, overnight accommodation [available at low cost at the ECCU for those from out of town], other meals, and fees, if any, for individual spiritual direction and monthly personal quiet days. A $50 processing fee is due with application and a non-refundable deposit of $250 is due at time of admission to the program [to reserve a place—space is limited] and remaining tuition for the Program is due in advance on a quarterly basis, or by arrangement.

Entry Requirements

Admission is open to individuals [lay or clergy], from any Christian denomination or group, who have a bachelor's degree or its equivalent and/or have training or demonstrable knowledge of Scripture and theology. Life experience is highly valued as is awareness of a potential call to be a spiritual director. Admission to the program is granted when the following steps have been completed:

- A completed application submitted by December 1, 2014, or later if there are still openings. Early application is encouraged because the size of a class is limited to twelve students and thus may be closed before the deadline.
- A $50 application fee, made out to CFDM-Utah
- A statement detailing educational background, work experience, Christian journey, involvement in church and Christian service, and interest in the program and in being a spiritual director [see attached questions].
- Two letters of reference [one pastoral and one personal]
- An interview with one of the Program Faculty/Staff

Questions to consider in completing your personal statement as part of the application process

1. How would you describe your understanding of spiritual direction?
2. Do you have, or have you ever had, a spiritual director. If so, for how long? What has been your experience and what has been most helpful to you in this relationship?
3. Have you ever had any spiritual formation or spiritual direction training? If so, please describe.
4. Do you have any theological training (i.e. seminary, bible school, courses, workshops)? Please be specific.
5. How/where did you find out about this program in spiritual formation and direction?
6. What do you hope to receive from this program?
7. Besides the goal of becoming a spiritual director, what is going on internally within you that is leading you to seek out spiritual formation and direction training?
8. If you are married, describe your spouse's response to your desire to be in this program.
9. Describe your spiritual journey and your relationship with God at this time.
10. What do you see as your strengths? Weaknesses?
11. Describe any steps you have taken or experiences you explore (i.e. counseling, spiritual direction, journaling, group work, etc.) to pursue emotional health and growth.
12. We believe it is God's desire that individuals not only grow in experiential knowledge of God but also in experiential knowledge of self. Therefore, one main focus of this program will be to take an in-depth and very honest look at yourself and your life – your relationship with God, your relationship with others, your giftings, strengths, weaknesses, woundings, addictions, etc. What is your response within as you read the above statement about this program?
